Team Facts

This is the second U-20 Women's World Cup that Canada have hosted after the inaugural edition in 2002, when the young Canucks finished runners-up following a 1-0 extra-time defeat by USA in the final.

The earliest goal in the competition's history was scored by Canada's Loredana Rivero, who found the net after just 40 seconds against Congo DR in 2008.

Canada are the only team in six past editions to have two players win the adidas Golden Boot award for top scorer. They were Christine Sinclair (ten goals in 2002) and Brittany Timko (seven in 2004).

Team Facts

Ghana are the second African side to take part in three editions, all of them consecutive, after Nigeria who have qualified for all seven tournaments. The only other CAF representatives to have participated in the U-20 Women's World Cup are Congo DR, with two successive campaigns between 2006 and 2008.

In their most recent outing in 2012, Ghana lost all three of their games without scoring. The Black Princesses have played a total of 318 minutes since last finding the net in the U-20 Women's World Cup.

Ghana booked their berth at the Canada finals by overcoming Equatorial Guinea on penalties in the decisive third qualifying round, after both sides had won the home match of their two-legged tie 1-0.

Team Facts

Finland lost all three of their games played during their maiden campaign in 2006, scoring just one goal (albeit an own goal by China's Yuan Fan) and conceding 12.

In the 2006 edition Finland were routed 8-0 by Nigeria, which remains the heaviest defeat suffered by a European team in the U-20 Women's World Cup.

Finland secured their place at the global showpiece in Canada by reaching the semi-finals of the UEFA U-19 Women's Championship 2013. The Finns had gone through the opening round of the final tournament unbeaten, notching one win and two draws to finish second in their group, behind Germany but ahead of Norway and Sweden.

Team facts

Korea DPR are the only team (apart from USA in the inaugural edition) to have won the U-20 Women's World Cup on their tournament debut, back in 2006. The east Asians have never drawn in 20 matches played in the competition (15 wins and five defeats).

In the last edition, Korea DPR set the tournament record for the biggest winning margin by thrashing Argentina 9-0.

Korea DPR qualified by coming second in the final group round of the AFC U-19 Women's Championship 2013, behind Korea Republic. It was the North Koreans' second consecutive runners-up finish after the 2011 edition.

Team facts

Two-time champions Germany, who are ranked second by number of titles behind USA on three, are the only European side to have reached the final of the U-20 Women's World Cup. The Germans have done it three times, winning the trophy in 2004 and 2010 before finishing runners-up two years ago.

Germany hold the tournament records for the most consecutive victories, with 12 between 2008 and 2012, and the most goals scored in the competition's history, with 95.

Germany qualified for their seventh U-20 Women's World Cup by reaching the semi-finals of the UEFA U-19 Women's Championship 2013, where they were knocked out 2-1 by the eventual champions France.

Team facts

China PR were the first team in the event's history to play two consecutive finals, losing both the 2004 and 2006 deciders 2-0 to Germany and 5-0 to Korea DPR respectively. In their next two campaigns in 2008 and 2012, the Steel Rosebuds failed to get past the opening round.

The earliest own goal in the history of the U-20 Women's World Cup was netted by Chinese player Yuan Fan, just one minute into her side's 2-1 win over Finland in 2006.

China PR qualified by coming third in the AFC U-19 Championship, thanks to their goal difference being one better than that of Japan.

Team facts

Brazil reached the semi-finals in each of the first three editions, finishing fourth twice and clinching third spot in 2006.

During the 2012 tournament, Brazil failed to win a single match for the first time in the FIFA U-20 Women's World Cup and were eliminated in the group round for the second successive campaign.

In January Brazil won their sixth continental U-20 title in as many editions contested.

Team facts

The first 0-0 draw in the competition's history involved England against Australia in the inaugural edition back in 2002.

England are without a win in their last six U-20 Women's World Cup games, having racked up three draws and three defeats since defeating Chile 2-0 in 2008.

In August 2013, England lost the final of the UEFA U-19 Women's Championship 2-0 after extra time to France. It was the third time in the last seven editions that the Young Lionesses had finished as continental runners-up, although they did clinch the trophy in 2009.

Team facts

Korea Republic are participating in their third consecutive U-20 global showpiece and their fourth in total. The Taeguk Ladies achieved their best placing of third in 2010, when they were eliminated in the semi-finals by the hosts and eventual champions Germany.

Just like Korea DPR, Korea Republic are yet to draw an U-20 Women's World Cup match, having won seven and lost six of their 13 matches played.

Korea Republic qualified for the global showcase by winning the AFC U-19 title for the second time in 2013, ten years after clinching their first continental crown.

Team facts

Mexico are appearing in their sixth tournament and their fifth in a row. Las Aztecas have lost more games (11) and conceded more goals (49) than any other team in the U-20 Women's World Cup.

The youngest scorer in the competition's history was Mexico's Charlyn Corral, who netted against Switzerland in 2006 at the age of 14 years and 11 months.

Mexico qualified by finishing runners-up in the CONCACAF Women's U-20 Championship 2014 following a 4-0 final defeat by USA. That campaign equalled the Mexicans' best placing in the continental tournament, which they achieved in 2010 when they also came second to USA.

History

The first confederation to stage an age-group tournament for women was UEFA in 1997 with the European Women's U-19 Championship. In a move to further promote the women's game, FIFA followed suit with its own competition for young women. As was FIFA's intention, the event has encouraged member associations to develop women's football at youth level and to set up teams in younger age groups, including the U-13 and U-15 brackets. Moreover, the championship has also prompted the confederations to organise continental qualifying competitions.

There are more than 29 million women playing football worldwide and 216 of them demonstrated their impressive skills at the inaugural FIFA U-19 Women's World Cup in 2002. Since Russia 2006, the tournament is now known as the FIFA U-20 Women's World Cup, and has 16 teams from all confederations: AFC: 3 teams; CAF: 2; CONCACAF: 3; CONMEBOL: 2; OFC: 1; UEFA: 4 and the host, who qualifies automatically.

The first FIFA U-19 Women's World Cup was held in Canada. The second was played in Thailand, the second Asian country, after China PR (1991 and 2007), to host a FIFA Women's World Cup. The 2008 event was held in Chile and Germany followed in 2010. Chile was the first South American country to stage a FIFA Women's event. The most recent event in 2012 was held in Japan, the host delivering once again a very successful tournament. This year's competition will be held in Canada between 5 and 24 August 2014.

Facts to know about the FIFA U-20 Women's World Cup

➤	The 2014 edition in Canada will be the 7 th FIFA U-20 Women's World Cup.
➤	The FIFA U-20 Women's World Cup is staged every two years.
➤	The inaugural tournament took place in Canada in 2002 and was actually an U-19 event, which was then changed to an U-20 event in Russia in 2006.
➤	A total of 31 different teams have qualified for at least one of the final competitions (2002-2014). The continental breakdown [AFC (7), CAF (3), CONCACAF (4), CONMEBOL (5), OFC* (2) and UEFA (11)] underlines the excellent development work in women's football. Brazil, Germany, Nigeria and the USA are the only teams to have qualified for all final competitions held to date. *Includes Australia affiliated to OFC for the first two competitions then AFC after 2006
➤	Paraguay are the only newcomers to this year's tournament.
➤	With three titles and 26 wins in 34 matches the USA lead the Women's U-20 All-time Ranking.
➤	The highest number of goals per match, 3.88, was recorded in the inaugural tournament in Canada in 2002, followed by 3.54 in Thailand in 2004 and 3.53 in Chile in 2008.
➤	The youngest player to have taken part in this competition is Sydney Leroux (playing for Canada in 2004 – now for USA), who was just 14 years and 6 months old..
➤	Mexico's Charlyn Corral became the competition's youngest goalscorer (at just 14 years and 11 months) when she scored against Switzerland in August 2006
➤	A new attendance record was set at the FIFA U-20 Women's World Cup Germany 2010; 395,295 fans in total with an average of 12,353 per match. Germany 2010 set a new benchmark that will be difficult to beat.
➤	Two final matches have had teams play from the same confederation. The USA played Canada in 2002 and Korea DPR played China PR in Russia in 2006.

Goals

Milestone goals

In Canada 2002 Germany's Isabell Bachor scored the 100th goal (her country's equaliser in the play-off for third place against Brazil). Canada's Kaylyn Kyle scored the 200th goal when she put her team 1:0 up against Nigeria in 2006. Two milestone goals were scored in Chile in 2008: the 300th goal was scored by the Nigerian Sarah Michael when she netted the first goal in her team's 3:2 win over New Zealand. Korea DPR's Ri Ye Gyong scored the 400th goal in the semi-final against France with the deciding goal to win the match 2:1. The 500th goal was Germany's first goal of the game by Lena Lotzen in the quarter-finals against Norway. After the sixth event in Japan, the total number of goals scored stands at 615.

Hat-tricks

18 players, representing nine different countries, have scored a hat trick in the FIFA U-20 Women's World Cup. Inevitably, Christine Sinclair (CAN) and KIM Un Hwa (PRK) head the list scoring five goals for their country. It was Brazil's Marta, however, who scored the very first hat trick in a 4:0 victory over France in 2002.
